INTERNSHIP TIPS

Sharpen Your Sword On Your Own Time

Always take the extra time to expand on your skills. There are plenty of videos on YouTube with how-to tips. There's also a bunch of great videos at LeanIn.org.

Draft Your Own Reference Letter

One of the reasons you're doing an internship is to get a good reference. But in a year or two when you're applying for other jobs your manager may have moved on to other things. Best to get a written letter of recommendation from them now.
